Confidentiality

As former practicing attorneys, the principals of Advocate Legal Search are keenly aware of the necessity for strict adherence to the highest standards of confidentiality throughout the entire placement process.

Consequently, we do not take confidentiality for granted. We actively stress it every step of the way for your protection.

As a candidate, you can be assured that we will never share any information or approach anyone on your behalf without your specific and informed authorization.

As a client law firm or corporation, you have our pledge that we will only use any proprietary information you provide us in exact accordance with your directions
