Why Advocate Legal Search?

If You Are A Law Firm or Corporation

We have the knowledge and the contacts which enable us to locate and attract attorneys who meet your criteria.

We meet the candidate we present to you. We fully evaluate his or her background, experience, work history and client base, and we thoroughly explore his or her goals and motivations to determine the potential and viability of the professional fit.

If You Are A Candidate

We work closely with a complete spectrum of law firms and corporations ranging from specialized boutiques to large international firms.

We have the contacts and access which will assure that your candidacy is placed in front of the right person. We adapt our presentation to you and your needs and goals and we present information about you accurately, professionally and persuasively.
